

Department of the Navy, DoD

§ 726.7

(5) The requirement for the competency board is in addition to and separate from the medical board procedures. Each board member will sign the report of the board and will certify whether the member is or is not mentally capable of managing his affairs. After approval by the convening authority, the original board report is forwarded to the Judge Advocate General.

(b) Records. (1) The convening authority will forward the original of each board report to the Judge Advocate General, Department of the Navy, 200 Stovall Street, Alexandria, VA 22332-2400.

(2) In the case of a finding that a member is not mentally capable of managing his affairs, the forwarding endorsement will set forth the name, relationship, address, and telephone number(s), of the member's next of kin and any other data to help identify a prospective trustee.

§ 726.5 Procedures for designation of a trustee.

(a) Upon receipt of a report of a board convened under section 1404 that a member has been found mentally incapable of managing his affairs, the Judge Advocate General or his designee will initiate action to appoint a trustee, provided no notice of appointment of a committee, guardian, or other legal representative by a State court of competent jurisdiction has been received by the Judge Advocate General. The Judge Advocate General or his designee may direct any Navy or Marine Corps activity to appoint an officer to interview a prospective trustee and make recommendations concerning suitability. The Judge Advocate General will provide the interviewing officer with complete instructions pertaining to the interview of the prospective trustee, including the forms required to be completed by the prospective trustee that will be returned by the interviewing officer to the Judge Advocate General.

(b) The interviewing officer will: (1) Determine whether the prospective trustee can obtain an appropriate bond as directed by the Judge Advocate General or his designee;

(2) Ascertain that the prospective trustee is willing to execute an affidavit acknowledging that all monies will be applied to the use and benefit of the member and his legal dependents and that no fee, commission, or charge, for any service performed by the trustee, except for payment of the required bond, will be paid from Federal monies received by the trustee.

(3) Forward recommendations to the Judge Advocate General for appropriate action.

§ 726.6 Travel orders.

The Chief of Naval Personnel or the Director, Personnel Management Division, Headquarters, Marine Corps, may issue travel orders to a member to appear before an examining board convened to determine whether the member is mentally capable of managing his affairs. In the case of permanently retired members, however, travel for an appearance before a board convened pursuant to section 1404, above, will be at no cost to the Government unless the Judge Advocate General or his designee determines that unusual hardship exists and requests that appropriate authority fund the travel expenses.

§ 726.7 Status of pay account.

(a) Upon notification by the commanding officer of the medical facility preparing the incapacitation determination that a member has been declared mentally incompetent to manage his affairs, the cognizant disbursing officer will take appropriate action and immediately send the member's personal financial record to the appropriate finance center following the guidelines in the Department of Defense Military Pay and Allowances Entitlements Manual, Part Four, chapter 2. The Judge Advocate General or his designee will then direct the appropriate finance center to suspend the member's pay. Thereafter, the Judge Advocate General or his designee will direct payment of monies to:

(1) The appointed trustee;

(2) The legal representative appointed by a State court of competent jurisdiction; or
